

FRONTIER THE VINDICATOR

Always for EDUCATION

And the PUBLIC GOOD.

Fall 2014

FRONTIER CULTURE MUSEUM of VIRGINIA: Printed by the EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Fall is finally here! There are already thousands of school children scheduled to visit the Museum this school year but we have plenty of dates and times still available. To reserve your date and program please email the Museum at reservations@frontiermuseum.org or call 540-332-7850 for assistance.

Homeschool educators, do not forget about our Fall Homeschool Day on Friday, October 3rd, 2014! Visitors can expect to see activities such as cooking, gardening, woodworking, flax and wool spinning, rare-breed animals, schoolhouse lessons, and more all day long. Advance ticket sales are available right now, but end on Wednesday, October 1, 2014. By purchasing your tickets in advance, you will pay $3 per child and $5 per adult. Tickets will be available the day of the event, but tickets will be $5 per child and $7 per adult. To purchase advance tickets, please follow this link: <https://tickets.frontiermuseum.org/Info.aspx?EventID=9>.

Winter will be here sooner than you think so don't forget to sign your students up for our Winter Outreach Programs. Our outreach programs are available January through early March and can be presented in your classroom setting or as an assembly. The Museum is offering two new programs this year, an Empire of Mali program and a Build-your-own-Outreach program for those who want to create a custom program for their students. Please allow at least two weeks for the preparation of custom programs. All programs are available to all grade levels and include age appropriate activities and content.

Also this fall, keep in touch with the Museum on Facebook to find out the special activity theme for the weekend. From cooking, to gardening, to plowing and planting, there are all kinds of things keeping us busy.

The next newsletter will be sent in the Winter.
