

THE FRONTIER VINDICATOR

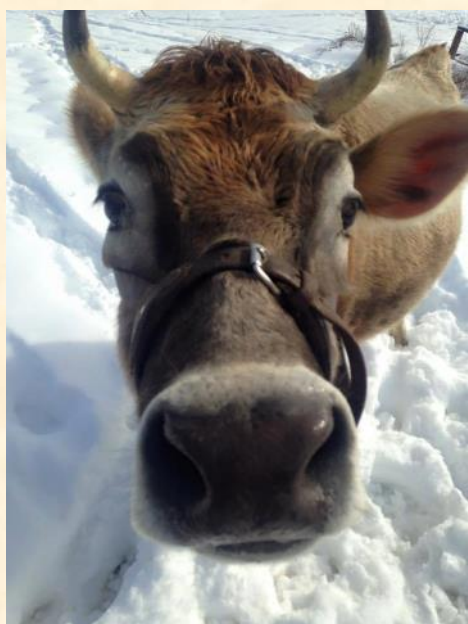

Always for EDUCATION

And the PUBLIC GOOD.

Spring 2015

FRONTIER CULTURE MUSEUM of VIRGINIA: Printed by the EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Winter is finally over! After all that shoveling, we are ready for spring. If you are thinking of a field trip this spring, we still have plenty of dates and times available. Please contact us by emailing at reservations@frontiermuseum.org or by calling at 540-332-7850.

Summer is only a few months away and we have already opened registration for our two summer camps, "In the Good Old Summertime" and the "Enhanced History Day Camp." We have some changes this year. This summer we will be offering 8 weeks of each camp. They will start on June, 8, 15, 22, 29 and July 6, 13, 20, and 27. And due to popular demand, the "In the Good Old Summertime" camp will be changing to an all day camp, no more separate AM or PM sessions. Your campers will experience some of their favorite activities again but also look for some new and exciting ones too!

Registration has begun and you can register online at <http://www.frontiermuseum.org/education/summer-camps/> or you can call at 540-332-7850.

With the coming season on its way, we have some spring cleaning to do. Our Cotswold and Tunis sheep are going to need their haircuts. Come by and visit us on Wool Days, April 15-18 to see sheep shearing and textile demonstrations. Sheep will be shorn using traditional hand shears at 11:00 and 2:00 pm each day. We will also be expecting some arrivals around that time too...baby lambs!

On May 1, 2015, the Museum will again be hosting its annual Spring Homeschool Day. The Museum will be open from 9 AM to 5 PM and visitors can expect to see a variety of activities including: cooking, gardening, woodworking, flax and wool spinning, rare-breed animals, schoolhouse lessons and more. Advance tickets, Adults $5.00 Children (6-17) $3.00, are now available and can be found at <http://www.frontiermuseum.org/homeschool-day-spring-2015/>. Any questions can be directed to 540-332-7850 or by email at visitor.center@frontiermuseum.org.

The next newsletter will be sent in the Summer.
